Lhuentse Dzongkhag ICT Services Acceptable Usage Policy

This Acceptable Use Policy (AUP) is a document that represents principles and ethics that govern the use of a network or the Internet. It specifies restrictions and practices that a user must agree to access Dzongkhag Administration's Information Communication and Technology services.

It is intended to protect the security of the network and prevent users from making the network vulnerable (opening systems and the entire network to attacks) by introducing viruses from irresponsible, abusive or illegal activities.

1. Scope

This Lhuentse Dzongkhag ICT Services Acceptable Usage Policy (AUP) is applicable to all users of the Dzongkhag Network.

2. AUP's Acceptable Conduct and User Obligations

1. Users are expected to use the Internet responsibly and productively. Internet access is limited to job-related activities only.
2. All Internet data that is composed, transmitted and/or received by the user's computer systems is considered to belong to the Dzongkhag and is recognized as part of its official data.
3. The services and technology used to access the Internet are the property of Dzongkhag and the Dzongkhag reserves the right to monitor Internet traffic and access data that is composed, sent or received through its online connections
4. Official emails should not contain content that is deemed to be offensive. This includes, though is not restricted to, the use of vulgar or harassing language/images
5. All sites and downloads may be monitored and/or blocked by the ICT section if they are deemed to be harmful and/or not productive to public service delivery.
6. Users are expected to respect the legal protections to data and software provided by copyright and licenses.
7. Keep your login accounts and password secure.

logging into a server or account that the user is not expressly authorized to access, or probing the security of service provider servers and networks.

15. Using any program/script/command, or sending messages of any kind, designed to interfere with a user's session.
16. Using the internet as a tool to exploit minors, children's or as an abusive tool.
17. Deliberate activities having, with reasonable likelihood, any of the following characteristics but not limited to:
 - a) Wasting service provider's staff effort or networked resources, including time on end systems and the effort of staff involved in the support of those systems;
 - b) Corrupting or destroying other users' data;
 - c) Violating the privacy of other users;
 - d) Disrupting the work of other users;
 - e) Denying service to other users (for example, by deliberate or reckless overloading of access links or of switching equipment);
 - f) Continuing to use an item of networking software or hardware after the ICT sector has requested users not to use it because it is causing disruption to the correct functioning of services.

4. Reporting Violation of the AUP

1. Any user, who believes that there is a violation of this AUP, shall direct the information to the ICT sector with all relevant information and evidence.
2. ICT Sector shall take necessary action such as warnings, account cease or account termination against the violator.

5. Revision of the AUP

1. The Dzongkhag Administration reserves the right to revise, alter or modify this AUP.
2. Any revision made to this AUP shall be made available online to users through email and website.

6. Monitoring

The Dzongkhag ICT Sector usually does not monitor Internet services under normal circumstances; however, the sector reserves the right to monitor Internet activities if seen necessary to protect the network in general.

The Dzongkhag Administration, Lhuentse hereby understand and will abide by this AUP. If any of the Dzongkhag network users commits any violation of this policy, their access privileges may be revoked, disciplinary action and/or appropriate legal action may be taken.
